Southern Regional Safety Day October 31, 2018

8:00 a.m. | Check in

Join us for refreshments and see the latest in safety products and services. Exhibits open until noon.

8:15 – 9:15 a.m. MNOSHA Update

Don't miss this overview of fatality trends and statistics; current MNOSHA staffing; and how companies can utilize OSHA to strengthen its safety program, culture and compliance. Several enforcement standards MNOSHA is prioritizing will also be discussed. James Krueger, Director of Compliance, MNOSHA, Saint Paul, MN

9:45 – 10:30 a.m.

#metoo — One Year Later. What Has Changed and What Has Stayed the Same?

Workplace harassment creates an unhealthy and unproductive work environment. A solid line of defense to workplace harassment is preparation and prevention. Training is essential but not enough. This session will provide valuable insights, resources, and tools to help you prepare for and address workplace harassment. Michael Hyatt, Director, Government Relations, MRA – The Management Association, Plymouth, MN

Safety Metrics: Use of Leading Indicators to Improve Safety and Health Management

Do you want to demonstrate the value that safety and health efforts bring to your organization? This session will help you identify better metrics for assessing program success and driving continuous improvement. Learn how leading indicators validate accountability within the workplace and the overall effectiveness of a safety and health management system. William R. Stuart, MPH, CSP, Occupational Safety Specialist, Minnesota Safety Council, Saint Paul, MN

11:00 – 11:45 p.m.

Fall Protection Update: A Summary of Trending Fall Protection Topics

This session will update and summarize the OSHA "Walking-Working Surfaces" standard. Come learn about new and upcoming OSHA or ANSI standards pertinent to fall protection. Leading edge and foot-level tie-off rules and best practices will also be covered. This is a trendy topic that affects construction and general industry — we look to help you address your exposures. Jason Giefer, Application Engineer, 3M Fall Protection Business, Red Wing, MN

Active Threat — Preparedness and Response

Active shooter incidents are often unpredictable and evolve quickly. In the midst of the chaos, anyone can play an integral role in mitigating the impacts of an active shooter incident.

This session is designed to support workplace preparedness efforts through a "whole community" approach by providing tools and resources to help you prepare for and respond to an active shooter incident. Mike Christianson, Protective Security Advisor, U.S. Department of Homeland Security – MN District

12:00 – 1:00 p.m. | Lunch & Keynote Overcoming Generational Differences: The Millennial Mindset

Today's workplace is at a generational crossroads unlike any other time in our nation's history. As the Baby Boomers ride off into the retirement sunset, Generation X is left to manage an empowered Millennial generation raised with a new set of attitudes and expectations about their work-life balance. Steve tackles stereotypes and builds understanding through a fun and humorous approach that will energize you and get you talking! Steve Bench, Generational Consulting

1:15 – 2:00 p.m.

Toward Zero Deaths and Distracted Driving

Distracted driving is a major problem. Get the facts from law enforcement and hear what's being done to keep our roads safe. This session will also highlight Toward Zero Deaths (TZD) — Minnesota's cornerstone traffic safety program — and how it can assist you in bringing awareness and safety to your employees. Captain Jeremy J. Geiger, Minnesota State Patrol; Brett Paasch, PE District 7 Traffic Engineer; Annette Larson, South Central Southwest TZD Regional Coordinator
