Extra DWI Patrols Going Deep on Super Bowl Weekend

Remind your employees to have a plan before the big game, so they don't do the Super Bowl stumble to their vehicles! Extra DWI patrols are on the road and will be going deep to catch impaired drivers.

If you plan to drink:

Don't drive. Before you leave the house, make a plan for having a fun, safe night out.

If you plan to drive:

It's simple - don't drink. Be a designated sober driver. Help save lives.
