Job Description
The Institute for Environmental Assessment (IEA) is a health and safety consulting company that provides project management and consultation services in environmental health and safety areas such as indoor air quality, OSHA compliance, facility management and asbestos material management.

IEA seeks a Health and Safety Technician for a full-time position in our Marshall, Minnesota office.

Required Experience

- Education – bachelor’s degree and/or experience in, Environmental, Industrial Hygiene or Health &Safety field preferred.

- Communication - Must demonstrate strong communication skills verbally and in writing.

Responsibilities

- Deliver quality service on assigned projects and clearly communicate with company project managers and staff.

- Become proficient in the standard services of the Environmental Health and Safety (EH&S), Indoor Environments (IEQ), and Environmental Project Design and Management (EPDM) Divisions services and carry out project tasks throughout the company.

- Assist with project documentation under the guidance of project and account managers.
- Prior construction/project manager background is preferred.
- Travel is required for this job position.

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- 401(k) Matching
- Dental Insurance
- Disability Insurance
- Flexible Spending Account
- Health Insurance
- Life Insurance
- Paid Time Off
- Vision Insurance

Schedule:

- Monday to Friday

Company's website:
• www.ieasafety.com

Apply to
• www.Indeed.com

Work Remotely:
• No